Information Disclosure Statement

1. Applicant's Information Disclosure Statement, filed Sept. 29, 2005 has been considered after allowance in this application.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims remain allowable over the prior art of record, inasmuch as the references cited in the most recent information disclosure statements are not deemed to anticipate nor render obvious the claims as pending, further, the reference to Yamaguchi, while teaching certain ones of the claimed steps, including the determination of a demanded torque, comparing a charge quantity in a storage device to a predetermined value based on a demanded torque, and partitioning demanded torque into engine and motor torques, fails to clearly teach the use of two torque thresholds, one for governing engine/motor torque partitioning and one for determining operating cylinders, and fails to teach the use of charge quantity to select the desired threshold. While the reference to Chhaya et al. teaches a number of different battery state of charge values for selecting operating modes, Chhaya also fails to teach the comparison of a demanded torque with two different torque thresholds.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
